Living an Exceptional Life (Live)

Jim Rohn passed away in 2009. He was an exceptional American entrepreneur, author, and motivational speaker. He mentored Tony Robbins in the late 1970s and a had a major influence on authors like Mark Victor Hansen, Jack Canfield, Brian Tracy, T. Harv Eker, and Chris Widener. In this 45-minute Rohn pushes the limits for how much great personal development advice he can fit into one talk. Like a great preacher he presents his many points in a clear and concise way and gives advice from his own highly successful life. You might want to take some notes while watching this one!

Biography
Jim Rohn has been hailed as one of the most influential thinkers on human potential. Whether or not you agree with this statement, it is inarguable that Rohn is certainly one of the most popular motivational speakers of all time, and an influence on a generation of self help speakers. After making his fortune as an entrepreneur and a businessman, Rohn set about devoting his life to helping others achieve all they are capable of in life and business. He has now become one of the world's most sought-after counselors on sucess and his seminars have reached at least 4 million people worldwide.

As a business philosopher he has created valuable concepts on a wide range of issues such as sales, entrepreneurial skills, leadership, marketing, and most importantly personal development. This work has produced an amazing selection of audio and video material, much of which is made in conjunction with other self development power houses like Zig Ziglar and Brian Tracy among them. Indeed, from Top Executives to Everyday People, Rohn has devoted his life to studying fundamental human behavior and how this can help everyone achieve what they want in life. Now it can be your turn to benefit from his life's work and awaken a power you never knew you had!

We Recommend
Jim Rohn has alot of audio programs to choose from, and it can be difficult to decide where to start. Let us first suggest "The Art Of Exceptional Living"; here Rohn argues that the first step in leading a great life is making it a work of art. You don't have to be a super-achiever, unusually creative, or endure great obstacles. No, according to Rohn you just have to do ordinary things exceptionally well.

Next you may want to listen to "The Day That Turns Your Life Around" in which Rohn shows you how to consciously create the conditions that make dramatic and lasting personal transformation not merely possible, but inevitable. In this program, you will discover the four emotional states that can change your life, and how to generate them within yourself at will, rather than waiting for external circumstances to activate them. Once you have reached this emotional state, Rohn shows you how to direct that momentum toward specific circumstances in your life that you wish to change.

There's also the compelling "Take Charge Of Your Life". Recorded before a live audience, this is one of the only ways to truly hear Rohn's message. In this program he asks many basic questions: "Why? Why not? Why not you? Why not now?" Why not acquire the means to travel first class through life, to see the Mona Lisa first hand, to swim the crystal waters of the Bahamas, to sample the food in Paris or Africa? Why not do it all?

And if you've ever meant to start a journal to keep track of your life, Jim Rohn teaches you the best ways to go about it in his classic audio program "How to Use a Journal". Jim Rohn practiced journaling for over 40 years and he will teach you the best methods for gathering and collecting ideas and experiences.

Let LearnOutLoud.com help you get the most out of Jim Rohn's message. Dare to have no boundaries and live your life exceptionally today!
